

NexaGrid Ltd – Modern Slavery Statement

NexaGrid Ltd recognises the importance of preventing modern slavery and human trafficking in its business activities and supply chain.

As a growing business, NexaGrid is committed to acting ethically, maintaining fair commercial practices and taking a proportionate, risk-based approach to supplier and subcontractor engagement.

Our approach includes reviewing the suitability of relevant suppliers and subcontractors, promoting responsible sourcing expectations, and monitoring supply chain risks relevant to the services we provide. Where appropriate, we will seek confirmation that suppliers operate in accordance with applicable legal and ethical standards.

NexaGrid will continue to develop its internal procedures and contractual controls in a manner proportionate to the size and nature of the business. If required in connection with a public contract or future legal obligations, the company will update and expand this statement and any supporting policies accordingly.

This statement is published voluntarily to support transparency and good business practice. It will be reviewed periodically and updated as the business evolves.
